

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Please don't allow that to happen. This does not serve the public consideration of who next to be president, is biased, manipulative, unfair and against the intentions of having open public airways.

One-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy. Please do not let Sinclair stations air "Stolen Honor," unless they also air a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver" shortly after the same evening or within one evening before or after.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
